

I am writing to express my opposition to any weakening of the Telephone Privacy law. This law has restored a sense of privacy to my home. It has been highly effective. No longer are we subject to incessant undesired calls that intrude on our lives at the most inopportune times.

Andrew S. Hirsch